Release/Waiver:

- a. I, the undersigned, desire for the person named as student herein, to participate in classes offered by Peachtree Etiquette, LLC. I am aware that participating in said program may involve some physical activity, and I state that my child is in the proper physical condition to participate. I hereby voluntarily release Peachtree Etiquette, LLC their staff and Paula Pranger from any and all responsibility for injuries or problems of any nature that may arise as a result of the named student's participation in this program/activity.
- b. I hereby give permission for images of my child, captured during Etiquette classes through video, photo and digital camera, to be used solely for the purposes of Peachtree Etiquette, LLC promotional material, newsletters, websites and publications, and waive any rights of compensation or ownership thereto.

Payment/Refunds:

- a. Full payment with a completed registration form will guarantee a place in the program. Payments must clear prior to the first class or Peachtree Etiquette; LLC reserves the right to refuse attendance to any student not fully paid.
- b. Full refunds will be made if requested two weeks prior to the start of the class. If you must cancel less than two weeks prior to the start date of the class, 20% will be retained to cover administrative and material costs associated with preparing for the course. Once a student has begun class refunds will not be made.
- c. Peachtree Etiquette reserves the right to dismiss a student whose presence is considered detrimental to the best interest of the student himself/herself, his/her fellow students, or of the school in general. We follow a three strikes your out policy. Refunds are not provided in the event of a student dismissal.

Scheduling:

- a. In the event a class does not reach the minimum of registered students, Peachtree Etiquette, LLC reserves the right to reschedule the class for a later date and time.
- b. Should the rescheduled day and time not comply with the students schedule a full refund will be made upon request.
